THE YOUNGER GENERATION

Once there were children who played, and laughed, who were unconcerned as they took life by its tail to wrangle out its joy, and laughed at its seriousness, who sat upon the earth's green grass composing odes to distant stars, who smelled the sweetness of summer breezes, were stupified with the wonder of each new day, and thought nothing more beautiful than the morning sun on a cloudless day.

The children grew, their bodies experiencing metabolic change. Their minds broadened, their scopes enlarged, their sense of values changed. And with their purposes directed, they set out upon the path of life determined to make their marks on the pages of history.

High schools, technical and preparatory schools, colleges and other institutions of higher learning will, at the end of June, give to the world a new generation upon whom the future of mankind may very well depend, to whom many new and exciting things will be offered, and by whom grave responsibility and challenge will be met. It is upon our integrity, stamina, character, leadership, foresight, intelligence, and ingenuity that the future of civilized society will rest.

The future of the world is in highly capable hands. Never before have the young been so educated. Nearly forty per cent of American youth go on to higher education—usually to specialize in some particular field, the number of which has vastly expanded. More and more members of our highly independent group take advantage of these opportunities which afford them as a group unprecedented affluence.

Then again there are those who realize our value, who recognize our accomplishments and give merit and credit where it is due. They are the teachers who take time out to help us when we need them; the parents who leave us to our own devices—to find our own answers—but are always in the background just in case; the old man next door who stops us on the street because he knows we'll listen; the young mother who trusts us with her children; the policeman who helps us out of trouble; and many, many people like J.F.K., who believed in us and didn't fail to let us know it. These people and innumerable others gave us strength, courage, and a renewed faith in our fellow man. Enough so that we could go on to complete our education, to join the Peace Corps, to fight for the rights of others—in the South and in Viet Nam—to stand up for our rights and decisions and to keep our morals high at any cost. Ours is the job to cure all the ills of the world and make important discoveries. We'll do it. We're determined. We can't fail! You may think us strange, we hope unique, but we shall be satisfied if at least you think of us.

Because you are truly great, to you, this book, we dedicate!

MISS ROSE MARIE SERRA
Senior Homeroom Teacher
Mathematics Teacher
Math-College Review Advisor

With an Einsteinian mind, and an open heart, you have won the favor of every student aware of your existence. For three years, you have worked unselfishly and have helped make Barringer the school it was designed to be.

Now, since all good things must someday end, we outgoing seniors have recollected our thoughts and decided to choose you as our class mother and hope that you will remember as many of us as possible, for it is most definite that we will remember you.

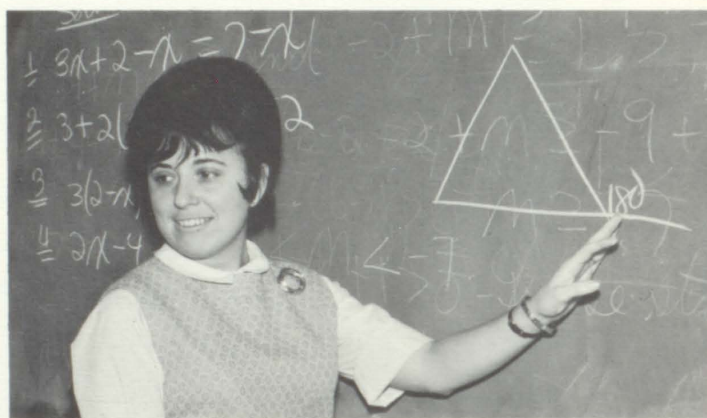

Miss Serra, a thank you wouldn't be enough for all the patience, wisdom and friendship you have distributed among us. Therefore, we offer these few words that have not come from the dictionary, but from the bottom of our hearts:

"We love you dearly, and we'll miss you terribly."

In recognition of your enduring efforts as a senior homeroom teacher, a math teacher, a club advisor, and a dear friend, we, the Senior Class of 1967, dedicate this yearbook to you in return for all the good you have done for us.

Once again, thank you, and may God bless you!

Mr. David Blank
Acting Principal

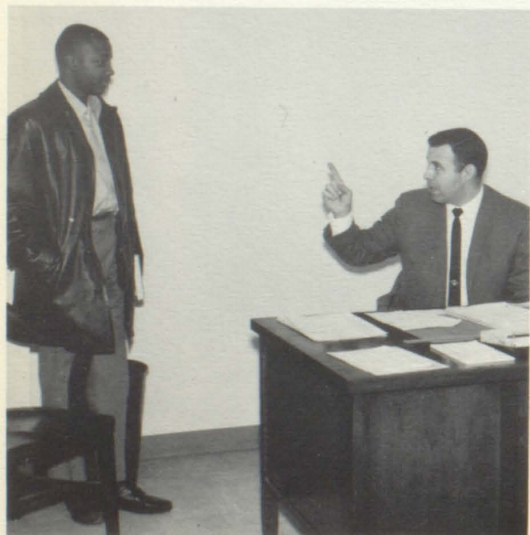

. . . THEY LEAD US TO ACCOMPLISHMENTS

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the administrators for the fine job they have done this past year. Their duties, though many and varied, were executed with a certain kindness and tolerance—as though they recognized our needs and accepted our shortcomings.

There are many fancy ways of showing appreciation (money, gifts, etc.), but our senior class chose the simplest . . . thanks! What do you expect on a “beer budget”?

Big Brother is watching you.

What do you mean you can't fit in your locker?

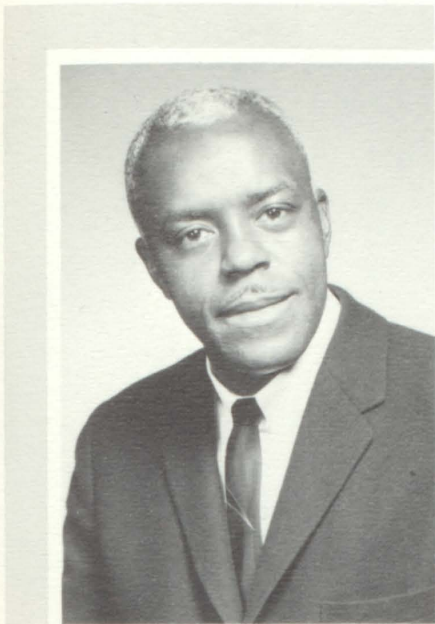

Now let's see . . . We'll give the seniors eighth period study.

Fellow Seniors:

It has been a pleasure for me to represent the entire senior class this past year, and I would like to thank each and everyone of you for your co-operation in helping me carry through my plans successfully.

Physically, we will part, but mentally and spiritually, we will long endeavor. We will not forget the good times Barringer has offered to us, and we will continue to work together in a place much bigger than any school could ever be, a place known to us as the world.

Good-bye, dear friends, and good luck to you in whatever tasks you may undertake.

EXTRACURRICULAR

Afro-American
Mrs. Lucille Russell, Advisor

The Afro-American Club, under the direction of Mrs. Lucille Russell, convenes twice every month. The purpose of this club is to inform its members of the famous American Negroes who have served our country in some way, but have not received honor in the major school textbooks.

A major aspect of our Music Department is Mr. Adolphe Argand's Chorus X. Not only do they sing within the school, but travel all over the state and compete in city and state-wide competition.

Mrs. Rose Brashear's Library Staff is an aid to the Big Blue's enormous library. The students who belong to this club work as library assistants to the three librarians. They aid students in using the card catalogue; they stamp the books which are borrowed; and they arrange them on the shelves when they are returned to the library.

Chorus X
Mr. Adolphe Argand, Advisor

Activities not only provide enjoyment to the students, but also build their skills. The students who are interested in writing may join the Creative Writing Club or the Acropolis magazine staff. There are clubs in the science field, the math field, the language field and the business field.

It is almost certain that a Barringerite in search of an extracurricular activity will not be in search for long.

Library Staff

Future Teachers of America Club
Mrs. Frances Byron, Advisor

Chemistry Club
Mr. Leon Kosofsky, Advisor

The Future Teachers Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Frances Byron, meets twice a month. The students who join this club are supposedly future school teachers, and learn the basic fundamentals of teaching. They also plan trips to various well-known places.

Mr. Kosofsky and his Chemistry Club are constantly doing exciting scientific experiments. The club also makes models of different atomic structures, and cleans and repairs the chemistry laboratory equipment.

SOCIETAS ROMANOS
Mrs. Alvaranga, Advisor

Barringer is very fortunate to have among its many educational facilities a well-organized Foreign Language Department.

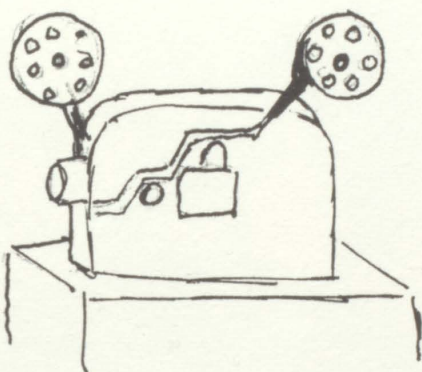

Four major foreign languages are taught, including French, Italian, Latin, and Spanish. Besides using the textbook, various newspapers and circulars are distributed to the students taking a particular language and these publications are written in the language corresponding to the course.

After school, there are language clubs which meet twice a month to enjoy the cultural aspects of the different countries. These clubs elect officers, visit famous places, and plan parties. Although the number of foreign language clubs are few, they play an important role in keeping Barringer students aware of foreign customs.

VISUAL AIDS CREW
Mr. Pallante, Advisor

There are boys who feel that after school clubs are strictly for the girls. However, contrary to popular belief, there are clubs which are open exclusively to boys. The Electronics Club, the Chef's Club and the Visual Aid Crew are three of the largest all-male organizations established at Barringer.

The Electronics Club has experimented with electric appliances and transistorized gadgets. The Chef's Club, which meets twice a month, is an organization designed to cultivate a taste for the culinary arts in young men. The Visual Aids Crew is in charge of showing films and slides in the classrooms and at the assembly programs.

MIXED CHORUS
Mr. Valor, Advisor

The Dramatics Club is, by far, one of the most popular clubs at Barringer. Each year the members of this club prepare to present the annual stage play.

The Mixed Chorus, supervised by Mr. Alfon Valor, is a voluntary group of singers who gain two and one half credits if they get through the course successfully. The group has a major role in both of the concerts presented at Barringer.

MATH TEAM
Mrs. Grasso, Miss Murphy, Advisors

The Math Team consists of Big Blue Math Scholars who plan to major in that subject while attending college.

Mr. Donald McEwan's Chess Club is a competitive team which has completed a successful year. The team consists of approximately twenty members, all of whom are excellent chess players.

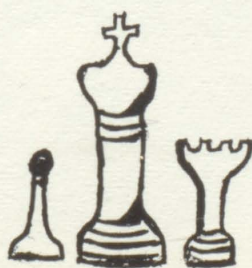

Another reason why Barringer's Business Department is one of the best in the state, is the excellent course offered in Machine Stenography. Miss Joanna Gellas and Mrs. Lillian Kappstatter instruct the classes. The students use the machines loaned to them by the school.

EASY GO, EASY COME

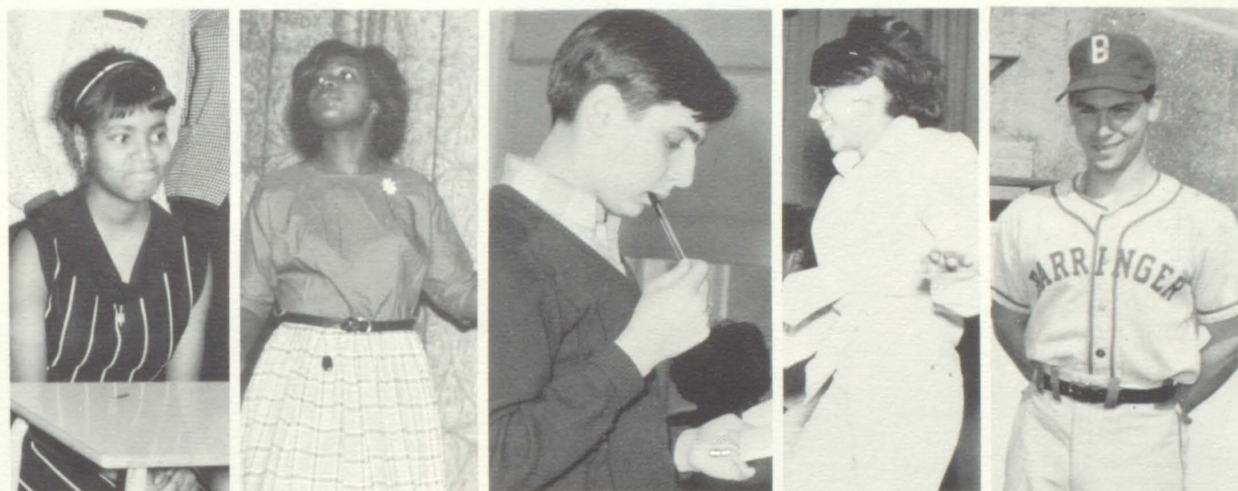

Our 1967 Senior Class consists of every kind of student in terms of personality, intelligence, charm, wit, sportsmanship, originality, and leadership. As we walk through the door of graduates, we find it proper to hand our outstanding characteristics to the incoming seniors in order that they will carry on where we left off.

We seniors have been observing the Junior class very closely and we are happy to say that the efforts made in finding replacements, have not been made in vain. Our apologies if we passed by a prominent junior, but we must agree that those selected were so, because they represent a facsimile of each mentioned senior.

The 1967 Senior Class was full to the brim with leaders. Robert Strand, our Student Council President, Fred Van Keuren, President of the Senior Class, Carole Czar, President of the National Honor Society and Vice President of the Senior Class, Paul Lucas, President of the Debating Club, and Carmine DiFazio, Vice President of the National Honor Society, to name a few, have done exceptionally well in guiding the class through this prosperous year. Replacing them will be: Zoya Khachadourian, Jim Salvato, Eloise Agguiregoitea, Linda Shorts, Lindsey Harvey and Howard Eng, again to mention a few.

Seniors who are best known for their academic qualities are: Jeanette Eng, Claire Chrysohos, Robert Miranda, Nancy Quinlan, April Lee, Betty and Trudy McCracken, Joseph Diana, and again Carole Czar and Carmine DiFazio. Replacing the class brains will be: Karen Ricciardi, Paul Sutton, Rose Schneck, Anna Caruso, Eloise Agguiregoitea, Susette Gould, Howard Eng, Charles Berle and Louise Heins.

A Senior Class is not complete without the clowns. Some of the funniest in this year's class are Royce McBride, Laurice Walker, Jackie McRae, John Rotonda, Raymond Nesto, Michael Muscarella, Kenneth Richardson, Delores Wymes, Gary Olivero, Anita Nelson, and Melinda Della Luna. Those who will help keep the laughing going are: Reggie Turner, Annette Seabrooks, Marta Reichenbecker, Jennifer Baptiste, Alice Lynch, Bobby Mangione, Bobby Gialanella, Mike Sierchio, Grace Russomano, and Larry Bowe.

The old adage teaches that beauty is only skin deep. In our class we prove this to be wrong. For not only do we have good looking seniors as far as outer appearance goes, but these very same seniors are beautiful in every respect. Chiarina Di Fazio, Sharon Martin, Cathy Wash, Marianne Russ, Rochelle Williams, Evelyn Covington, Fred Van Keuren, Bobby Marelli, Bobby Barbella, Carl Milton, Ben Gallante, Albert Troupe, Harry Cardinale, and Riccardo Ward are among the many prima Donna's. Taking their places are: Maria Nazaretta, Joanne Mariani, John Barowski, Bobby Gialanella, Marlene Wilson, Anna Caruso, Bernadette La Fera, Peter Martino, Ricky Zenna, Rudy Luciola, Debbie Marbach, and Christine Bozinta.

The all around athletes of our class, namely, John Rotunda, Robert Merk, George Briscoe, Albert Troupe, Robert Serritella, Robert Marelli, Ben Gallante, Michael Bizarro, Kenny Richardson, Jimmy Walker, Fred Van Keuren, Jimmy Catullo, Francis Ewell, Betty Johnson and Mertis Baker, will be replaced by: Billy Mills, Paul Sutton, Barry Gray, John Barowski, Mike Sierchio, Ernie Adams, Doug Gemmel, Charles Berle, Ed Branch, Nicky Carsillo, Yvonne Flowers and Betty Smith.

If a Mr. Activity were to be chosen, those choosing would find it quite a difficult task. John Robinson, Eugene Mosely, Joanne Carlucci, Loretta Tuttle, Paul Wilson, Robert Strand, Carole Czar, Patricia Quick, Trudy and Betty McCracken, Jean Derricotte, Elizabeth Smith, Barry Whittle, and Betty Louie are among the many who participate in whatever is going on. Their traits will be continued by Lindsey Harvey, Zoya Khachadourian, Linda Shorts, Patrice D'Alessio, Reggie Turner, Jimmy Salvato, Karen Ricciardi, Carol Bowers, Annette Seabrooks, Frenchie Carlisle, Betty Smith and Louise Heins.

Congratulations to the entire Junior Class, you've received an excellent rating and we seniors are proud to have such a fine group of students as our successors. Well, it's your show. Have fun with it as we did, and here's hoping that each and every school day, of the 1967-68 season, will be as rewarding and as exciting as was each of our school days.

It's much too late for publicity. We cannot publicize that which is up-coming for there is nothing coming up! What we can do, however, is look back into this previous year and re-live the successful, and most enjoyable events that Barringer has offered to us.

The number of school dances was abundant, and each one was different in some respect. They started out fancy and ill-attended, and ended up plain and ill-attended. But to those who have attended every dance, or at least a majority of them, it is certain that you have enjoyed them.

We've seen two musical concerts, one in the winter, one in the spring. Both were relatively the same as far as program synopsis is concerned, but each one was different enough so that students may pick their favorite.

Ah, and remember the play, "Damn Yankees" wasn't it great? A great deal of time and effort went into that production and the audience was exceptionally pleased with the outcome.

Then there was this particular Friday night on the 3rd of March when the senior girls and the junior girls competed against each other in the Powder Puff Game. Remember the boys with the beautiful legs who acted as cheerleaders and had the whole gymnasium in "stitches"? Of course we can't forget the exciting football games and basketball games and the other sporting events.

You'll also remember the time when you were drinking from the water fountain and some crack pot student sneaked behind you and stuck a straight pin in your backside. You will recall the time when a very glamorous looking female student was walking down the corridor and some practical joker ran behind her and pulled her wig or wiglet and there, in front of you, stood the most homely looking creature you have ever seen in your life.

Oh yes, students, it has been a great year for us, and now we must let all these glorious happenings stay behind, while we move forward.

IT WAS A GREAT YEAR
